

By Jean Gardner

Church services for January 30 will be at 11 a.m. in Oxbow.

The howling winds and sub-zero temperatures did not deter the brave crowd who attended the weekly Friday night fish dinner at the church. People from near and far fought old man winter to attend the feast.

Oletha Scott of Gouverneur won the 50-50 raffle at the fish dinner. Sally Countryman, also of Gouverneur, won the dinner ticket and Ben Barker won the framed print that was donated by Julie Kirker. Hopefully next week's dinner will have the co-operation of Mother Nature so more will be able to attend the dinner. Nothing beats the winter blues better than a good dinner among friends and neighbors of the area and neighboring communities.

The weekend of the 29th and 30th is fast approaching, which is the dates of the fishing derby that is being sponsored by the Fire Department and Auxiliary. On the 29th the Fire Department is also sponsoring a dance from 9-11. Music will be provided by Ray John. So after putting away those fishing augers and tip-ups, dust off those dancing shoes and come out for an evening of dancing and fun at the Fire Hall.

Last week I omitted the birthday of my good neighbor, Ray Kirker. Happy Birthday Ray (Bim), may you have many, many more. If I forget anyone else, don't hesitate to call me and tell me.

Ina Chisholm received a telephone call from Matt Finley. Matt moved to Michigan last summer. Matt called to say hello and asked about his friends and neighbors. He'd like to hear from everyone.

Margaret Fowler's son, Denny, and family of Plattsburgh were able to make it through the snow on Friday to visit his mom. While here Denny shoveled the two foot snow drifts off Margaret's roof. Denny stayed until Saturday afternoon. On Sunday evening Margaret's son, Kerry (Slug), and family of Vermont stopped in for a visit. Kerry visited with his mom until late Monday afternoon. Margaret's son, Dave of Hannibal, called and said he couldn't make it even if he tried, since he is in the mist of the snow belt area.

A big get well wish to Ella Brotherton of Gouverneur. Ella is in the Hepburn Hospital, Ogdensburg. Speedy recovery, Ella.

Any news? Birthdays, anniversaries, parties, don't hesitate, call 287-4941. May old man winter leave us alone and hopefully the following week will bring warm, spring-like temperatures, since next week the ground hog will emerge. Will he or won't he see his shadow?

Call 287-4941 with any news.

Edwards

By Vivian Zeller

Kurt and Leslie Hartley of Barns Corners visited their dad, Steven Hartley, and other relatives this past weekend.

Kathy and Steven Payne has moved into their new home on the Antwerp/Spragueville Road.

At the Edwards Nutrition Center on January 14 there were four tables of play. Prizes as follows: ladies high-Evelyn Pernice; Ladies low-Vivian Zeller; mens high-Pete Biglow; mens low-George Hart; door prize-Margaret Gardner; 50/50-Evelyn Pernice and most 14's-Vern Gardner.

Bob and Hope Mazorski visited Hope's grandmother to present their new son Stephen Samuel, my 27th great grandchild.

LOCAL HELP APPRECIATED

I am writing this letter as a gesture of appreciation for the job done by Dave Hampton's Crime Prevention Dept. on December 13, 1993 at 265 East Main St. I walked out of my house to find that a car had been stolen. It shattered the windshield and broke a 5' x 10' piece of the dashboard. I called Dave Hampton at 8:00 p.m. Dave Hampton, the owner of this business, immediately contacted my predicament. He stated that they could check out my truck in the morning, assess the damage and let me know what they could do.

After about 3:00 p.m. I returned to my house and picked up the car. I was told that the car was damaged and that my insurance would not cover it. Dave Hampton's Crime Prevention Dept. was able to get the car back and the damage was covered. I am writing this letter to express my appreciation for the service of Dave Hampton's Crime Prevention Dept. and to let everyone know that it is important to have a good insurance company that can help you in a crisis.
